- Prof M.K.Gupta, Dean Faculty of Science, CCS University, Meerut (Convenor I)
- Dr. Poonam Khare, Associate Professor, Deptt. Of Geology, J.V.Jain College, Saharanpur (Convenor II)

At the outset, the Convenors welcomed the members of the Expert Committee and informed the objectives of the meeting to give recommendations on the overall syllabus of B.Sc. Programme in Geology. The Convenors also requested the Committee to give its recommendations on 30% change in the syllabus of B.Sc. Programme of Geology without making changes in the basic framework.

In this regard, the Convener II presented the overall structure of B.Sc. programme of Geology, the list and syllabi of courses as per the guidelines of CBCS of UGC. After the detailed deliberations, the recommendations of the Committee are as given below:

1. Course Code: B090101T Physical and Structural Geology

- i. In unit 1,
 - 1. Instead of Earth's atmosphere, components of Earth should be included and
 - 2. In place of Ancient Mining Techniques, Volcanoes and Earthquakes are proposed to be added.
- ii. Sequencing and rewording can be done for unit II.
 - 1. Seafloor spreading, continental drift and basics of Plate tectonics are shifted to unit VIII and
 - 2. In unit II, Weathering and Erosion: Geological work of wind: Erosion, transportation, deposition and their related landforms has been added
 - 3. In unit IV rewording of upper two lines may be done
- iii. In Suggested readings online link of egyankosh videos related to physical & structural geology are added

2. Course Code: B090102P, Practical Structural Geology

- i. Rewording may be done in course outcomes

SELF ATTESTED

- ii. Sequencing can be done in the study of Folds, Fault and Unconformities
- iii. Calculation of throw is eliminated as students are required to perform this calculation at PG level and not at UG level.
- iv. Instead of Complex geological maps, the term simple geological maps was suggested.
- v. In Suggested readings online link of egyankosh videos related to physical & structural geology practicals has been added
- vi. Rewording may be done and add Identification of fold, fault and unconformities on geological maps through wooden models

3. Course Code: B090201T, Crystallography and Mineralogy

- i. In course outcomes rewording may be done
- ii. In unit II Preliminary ideas about various types of projection are deleted.
- iii. In Unit V, change of sequence of isomorphism, pseudo morphism and polymorphism may be done
- iv. Structural classification of silicates is added in the unit V
- v. In unit VI, Carbonate, Zeolite and Felspathoid families has been added.
- vi. In unit VIII, instead of Nicol Prism Polarizing Microscope: components and its functions are proposed added
- vii. In suggested readings, online link of self learning material and videos from egyankosh repository from IGNOU website related to Crystallography and Mineralogy has been added

4. Course Code: B090202P, Practical Mineralogy and Crystallography

- i. Removal of verification of Euler's formula as Students performs the same in B.Sc. Hons course
- ii. Instead of Clinographic projections of typical crystals, Study of symmetry elements of normal class included
- iii. Octahedron, included in place of Zircon and calcite.
- iv. In Physical and Optical properties of important rock forming minerals, names of rocks and slides are added.
- v. In Suggested readings, online links of egyankosh videos related to Crystallography and Mineralogy practical has been added.

5. Course Code: B090302P Practical: PALAEOLOGY

Study of advanced geological maps, and preparation of cross-sections; dip-strike problems by stereographic projection are deleted as it is not a part of Practical Palaeontology

6. Course Code: B090401T Course Title: PETROLOGY

- i. In Unit III, IUGS classification are deleted
- ii. In Unit VI, Flow dynamics; Froude number; Reynolds number; Flow regime; Types of flow are deleted

UNTESTED

- 7. Course Code: B090502T STRATIGRAPHY
 - i. In unit 1, Geological time scale is added
- 8. Course Code: B090503R Course Title: Field Work
 - ii. Instead of Geological Field Excursion of at least 7 Days was proposed In Sixth Semester field work, after the discussion with experts, it is converted into Geological field excursion in and around Saharanpur for 60 Hours duration.
